IBC Library News

Remember to stop by the library on Monday mornings and, while there, look for these new books:

The Great Blue Hills of God – Kreis Beall, co-founder of Blackberry Farm, reveals how she found herself only after losing everything.

When Time Stopped: a Memoir of my Father's War and What Remains – Ariana Newman tells the story of her father's escape from Nazi-occupied Prague and the industrial empire he built in Venezuela.

Mobituaries – Mo Rocca, a story teller and TV personality, celebrates the dead people who have long fascinated him. He includes essays on artists, entertainers, sports stars, political pioneers, founding fathers, reputations, fads, movements and many obscure bits of history.

Thanks to Allen Schlamp for donating these books.

Don't Forget!

Library Survey

Immanuel is researching an option to convert our library to an automated format. Patrons could browse the collection online through the church's website, see which books are recent acquisitions and scan the books at check-out – no more cards and date stamps!

Pastor Stephanie is in the midst of moving everything (including mountains of books!) into her new office. Actually, she has made lots of progress getting unpacked. Remember, she is unpacking at home, too!
