JULY 2019

Vol. 11 No. 7

was at the heart of this year's Family Vacation Bible School. Children, parents, and grandparents learned about compassion through creative exploration of four passages of Scripture. Caroline Talbert guided the families to use instruments to create a soundtrack for the parable of the Good Samaritan. Diane Sharpe led the families to actively contemplate what the prophet Micah meant when he wrote:

"Do justice, love kindness, and walk humbly with your God." Emily Cooper and Olivia Leu helped the families think about God's call to care for the immigrants in our midst. Elaine McKenna and Olivia Cooper and the families thought about ways we can show compassion for those who are hungry, thirsty, strangers, naked, sick, or in prison, just as Jesus taught us to do. Thanks to everyone who made this year's Family VBS a meaningful time for our young families.

THE WEATHER REPORT

Nearly eleven years ago I made Tambi's acquaintance. Immanuel Baptist Church had been identified to be the host congregation for the annual meeting of the Tennessee Cooperative Baptist Fellowship in the spring of 2009. A planning committee was formed and we began our work in earnest in the fall of 2008. Tambi was a member of the planning committee.

The assembly was held the following April with good participation. At one point during the lunch break I headed to the kitchen to find trash can liners. There I ran into Tambi who was on an errand of her own. If my memory is correct, I segued from cleanup to her future in ministry. Since her graduation from Beeson Divinity School in Birmingham, Alabama in 2004, Tambi had worked in free-lance writing and served as a Leadership Development Specialist for the TNCBF. In the coming months, I found myself at lunch with Tambi exploring what ministry at Immanuel Baptist might look like for her and for us.

You know the rest of the story. Subsequent to that lunch meeting and after a succession of steps with appropriate church committees, Immanuel Baptist Church called Tambi as associate pastor in November of 2009. Soon Tambi, her husband Paul, and their son, Chaney, joined our church family. Although the scope of her ministry at Immanuel defies neat compartmentalization, a tranche of her work would include: ministry to young families, their youth and children; the extension of the church's ministry footprint into the city, region and overseas; the offering of retreats and Bible studies; and leadership in worship.

By now you have learned of Tambi's resignation. In the message she shared with the congregation in worship on Sunday,

May 26, she said, "Last year, I became aware of the Spirit's gentle nudge, urging me to pay attention. In subsequent months, that nudge became a persistent push. God was speaking to me, and I needed to listen." Tambi's last day as Associate Pastor is set for July 31. The concentric circles of her influence will ripple far and wide, and will affect others for seasons to come.

Inevitably, the departure of a beloved pastor generates sadness; such genuine feelings should be honored. Despite the grief, such transitions can be treated as an opportunity for emotional growth. How we say goodbye will inform how we say hello to a new partner in ministry.

Worship on Sunday, July 21 will be informed by the transition before our congregation. We will observe the time-honored ritual of the imposition of hands. In the New Testament there are a number of references to the laying on of hands in the early church. In our tradition this ritual is employed at the time of ordination. Scripturally, the predominant use of the gesture is a manner of blessing. Our Lord and Savior often laid his hands on those he healed and loved. All present in worship that Sunday will have the opportunity to participate in this ritual as we seek to bless Tambi for her faithful practice of the radical, compassionate discipleship taught by Jesus Christ.

Life as a child of God moves on a reliable principle of leaving a place and seeking and finding another. I am confident that God has already taken a long look ahead on Tambi's behalf and is providing for her future. I believe this holds for our congregation, too. Join me as we seek to express the terms of our endearment for God's servant Tambi Swiney.

—Steven

Reminders ...

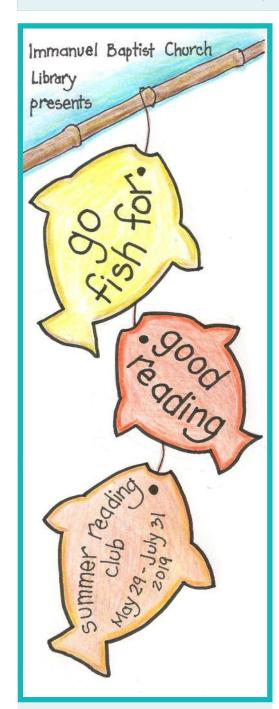

There will be NO senior adult meeting in July.

On August 6 at 10:30 AM Richard White will speak at the senior adult meeting and tell about the new Tennessee State Museum. Come learn more about this beautiful new structure that depicts the history of our state. It is located in downtown Nashville, near the Bicentennial Mall. Make your reservation for lunch by contacting Evelyn Brandon by August 2.

Personnel Committee Update

Since May 28 the Personnel Committee has been planning for Pastor Tambi's departure. Our first task has been to plan something in recognition of her time at IBC. With the help of the Food Services and Social Activities Committee a reception will be held in honor of Pastor Tambi immediately following Worship on Sunday, July 21. We hope you will join us for the celebration

During the past 10 years we have been blessed by Pastor Tambi who had chosen to take on a number of responsibilities and did a fantastic job with each of them. The Personnel Committee has been working to identify these essential roles that need to be filled and is preparing for the transition after July 31st. With assistance from the Educational Enlistment Committee and Pastor Tambi, we have been able to secure church members and committees to cover a few of these roles. The Committee, however, feels it is in the best interest of our youth, families, and church body to hire an interim Youth Minister to focus on the roles and responsibilities associated with youth programming.

Now that plans for interim and transition periods have been put in place, the Committee can move forward with our next task: evaluating the church's long-term needs and the position(s) of Associate Pastor, Children's Minister, and Youth Minister. The Committee wants to be very intentional about this step. We will consider the position(s) with respect to our Vision Statement, current membership, and growth of our church body. We will be seeking input from church members in the coming months. Upon completion, the Committee will put together a new job description(s) to define the position(s) according to our findings.

As the job description(s) is finalized, the Committee on Committees will work to fill the three additional spots of the Personnel Committee for the purpose of forming a Search Committee. Once established, the job(s) will be posted and the Committee will begin accepting resumes and interviewing candidates.

While it is hard to establish a timeline at this point, the Personnel Committee is dedicated to carrying out our responsibilities in a timely, thorough, and effective manner. We ask that you join us in praying for our church and the work of the Committee throughout this transition.

COLUMBARIUM DEDICATION ~ JUNE 9, 2019

Praise the God of Israel. He has redeemed his people. Our savior was born.

We now are rescued. He delivers us from sin. We live without fear.

He prepared the way. Our every sin is forgiven. His mercy saves us.

Light replaces darkness. The shadow of death recedes. We now walk in peace.

Elton Hinshaw

On Sunday, June 9, following the morning worship, the congregation recessed to the area adjacent to the church office to dedicate the columbarium and to inter the ashes of Elton Hinshaw. After a hymn and Scripture reading, the project architect and Immanuel member Randy Dover explained the columbarium design and its symbolism.

Later this year a gray granite cross, Celtic in design, will be added on the Honeywood Avenue side (see picture below) of the columbarium. It will be approximately seven and one-half feet in height.

We have created this sacred space because we know that life is a gift from God, and we know that death is a part of life.

We now dedicate this columbarium to the glory of God, knowing that it provides a place where we honor both death and life.

—from the Litany of Dedication written by Charles Businaro with phrases adapted from Rev. Lee Hull Moses

Happenings

Chris Dean Named Interim Youth Minister

Following Pastor Tambi's announcement of her resignation effective July 31, the Personnel Committee has been working on finding an interim youth minister The committee is very pleased to report that Chris Dean has agreed to become youth minister on a part time basis. He will start on August 1.

There will be NO
Wednesday evening supper or activities during the month of July.

The new Sunday School year begins Sunday,
August 5.

Parking Lot Updates

Please make a note that we have made some changes to the church's parking lot.

There are now five parking spaces in the back of the church near the pavilion that are reserved for visitors.

In addition, the parking lot is now ONE WAY ONLY. These changes were implemented by the church after hearing safety concerns from both church members and from Parents' Day Out families.

When entering the church parking lot, please come in from Belle Meade Boulevard at the north (left) side of the church. Do NOT enter the south side of the parking lot off of Honeywood Drive. The area facing Honeywood will now only be used for exiting the parking lot (or going into the lower lot near the basketball goals).

Please help keep our precious children safe by following these new directions, slowing down, using your back-up camera and by never leaving your car running.

Thank You!
